Planning Your Trip To Egypt?

Things To Know Before Planning Your Trip To Visit Egypt.

When To Go

As far as temperature goes, winter is the best time of year, although hotels and cruises get booked up over Christmas and New Year. November and late January/February are good for avoiding the worst of the crowds.

What To Take

You can buy most things in Egypt but you should bring your own sunscreen. You should also bring any prescription or nonprescription medicines.

Visas

Most nationalities require a tourist visa to enter Egypt. These can be secured in advance from Egyptian consulates in your own country but it is much easier and cheaper to obtain them on arrival at Cairo airport.

Credit Cards

Credit cards are accepted in large restaurants and shops and at most hotels, but that's about it. American Express, MasterCard and Visa are the most likely to be accepted.

What Our Client Say ?

Things To Know Before Planning Your Trip To Visit Egypt.

This was the kind of Egyptian travel experience I had dreamed about, and it really was a dream come true. Khaled's attention to detail and commitment to us having a hassle free trip became apparent at every turn. We were met at the airports by greeters, shuttled in private cars

I worked with Khaled via e-mail to create an itinerary for myself and my 80 year old mother. He was very helpful and able to make additions and changes for us even during our trip. We toured Cairo, did a 7 night Nile cruise to visit many of the amazing sites around Luxor
